Clubhouse Recovery is a social gathering venue for adults 18 years and older who are in recovery from mental illness. The Clubhouse is located 2 doors down (north) from Brine’s Market. Please enter through the East Suburban Resources (ESR) main door, turn left once in the hall and follow directional signs to the Clubhouse in the adjacent room.

Activities Include:
Jammin’ Art offers opportunities for creating art with a variety of art mediums. Instruction and work time will be scheduled 2-3 times a month. Several volunteer artists from the community will instruct or assist and provide presentations. The series will sponsor an art exhibit later in the year. There is no charge to participate.

Every Week: adult coloring, cribbage, board games, playing cards, snacks, as well as announcements about activities in the community
